Miss Garden State helped celebrate Max's Service Dog Graduation

Max is with an army veteran of 15 years who served in Iraq and Afghanistan and about 6 years as a police officer. Max lives with this veteran and his four children and wife. They all love Max!

Goldie seemed very scared and sad during her vet visit!

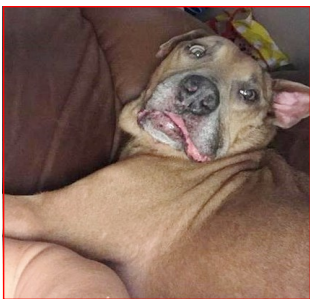

Poor Goldie! Her life really went down hill when her pet parent moved and just left Goldie to roam the neighborhood. We were told that people or kids were terrorizing her once she was left behind. She presently is very timid from the ordeal, but very sweet. We had her vetted only to find out that she is heartworm positive and we are getting her treated. She also had something seriously wrong with her tail. She had to have her tail amputated. While she was healing, stitches broke open and part of her tail that was left broke off. She needed another immediate surgery. She also needed several laser treatment sessions to help heal the stub that was left of her tail. Her vet expenses are extremely expensive.

YOUR CONTINUED FINANCIAL SUPPORT makes sure Goldie's life and other lives in desperate need are healthy, golden and full of love and gentleness.

IF INTERESTED IN ADOPTING GOLDIE or any other animals available for adoption, please contact us. There is one waiting for you.

Please DONATE so we are ready to help animals desperately needing our safety net and love.

Healing emotionally and physically!

Animal Sanctuary Society, Inc. is proud to be a safe haven to animals. We provide vet care, medicine, surgeries, food, shelter, and other necessities to animals until the day they are adopted. We will not euthanize an animal because no one is adopting him or her by a certain time. This is possible because of the generous donations and contributions of people like you. Our sincere appreciation goes out to all our donors, volunteers, and adopters for making all of this possible!

Enjoying the Good Life

Carrie has been given a new name. She is now known as Lola! Her new pet parents are Eagles fans and she enjoyed watching the Super Bowl with them in her new Eagle's cheerleader outfit provided by the Animal Sanctuary Society, Inc. ! Her parents are convinced the Eagles won the Super Bowl because of her outfit.

Lola was so excited to be going home with her new pet parents she couldn't stop wagging her tail. Lola is very loved and she knows it!

Pet mom says that Lola has found her voice and loves to look out the window and bark at dogs going by.

Blizza has a new name too. It is Figlet. What an awesomely wonderful personality this adorable cat has! Figlet is enjoying life in her new home!

Kringle, whose new name is Gigi, is surrounded by love in her new home; and this kitty seems to really be enjoying it!

Ranger's new name is Murphy. He is enjoying his new life relaxing out on the deck of his new home!

Murphy loves his new toy almost as much as his new home!

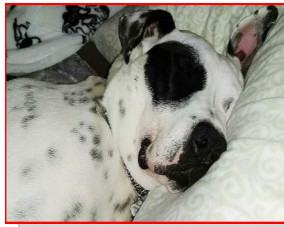

Sepita, who was once known as Snuggles has such sweet pet parents! And she is loving all the affection!

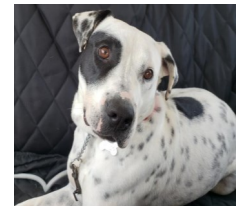

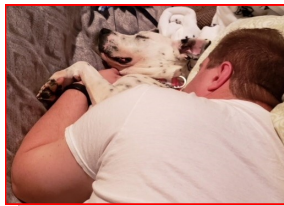

Enjoying snuggles at home

Animals are miracle workers.
They come into our lives for a purpose.

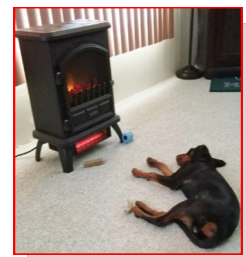

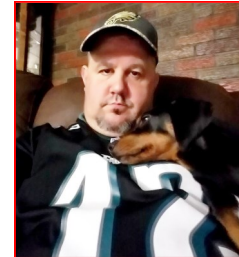

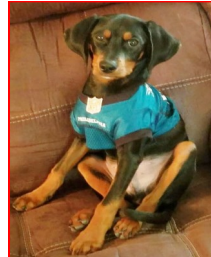

Allison was adopted by an extremely understanding husband and wife who helped Allison get over her fears of the husband and strange people. She now enjoys sleeping on the couch with Dad. She came to visit us, and was like a new social butterfly. She even has a great big smile when she's sleeping!

Blue eyes is now known as Bubba the Bassett hound. He has so much unconditional love to give to everyone in his new family!

One of our gifted volunteers, who is a college student who wants to be an ER Doctor and is also a fantastic portrait artist painted these 2 pictures of Allison and Bella.

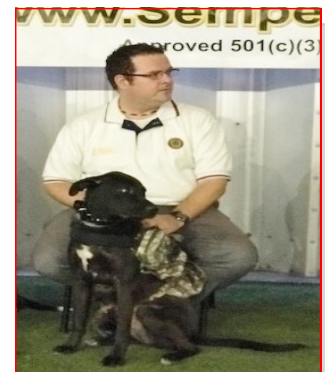

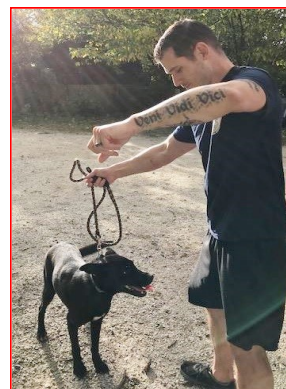

Baxter will help heal his new pet parent's hearts after the death of their beloved pug from cancer.

Baxter has become a sports fan and loves watching the Eagles game with Dad wearing his Eagle's shirt. When not watching the Eagles, Baxter enjoys a good nap while cozying up to the electric fireplace.

This wonderful veteran who once broke his back in training and suffered PTS from his tours overseas, is smiling and happy and doing much better with rescue dog, Barkley, whose new name is Trigger.

Trigger at his service dog graduation.

Trigger underwent approximately 6 months of service dog training with this trainer!

Trigger's proud pet parent sits with him at graduation.

It's all about saving lives. Each life matters. When you rescue an animal from a shelter, you are saving two lives—the one that you are adopting and the next one who needs that space.

Animal Sanctuary Society, Inc. provided Suzie with physical therapy on a water treadmill when we found out she had a slipped knee. We rescued her from a shelter that euthanizes for space when her pet parent was diagnosed with Alzheimer's.

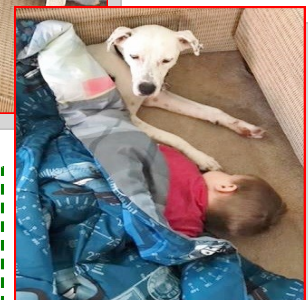

Barney is so happy at home he has not stopped wagging his tail even when resting in his comfortable foam bed! Check out everyone's smile, even Barney's. His pet parents have been heartbroken ever since their 11 year old Beagle became sick and died. They went to an ER vet hospital when he got sick. Pet Mom volunteers at an animal shelter near their home helping with laundry and dishes. Barney's pet parents are such wonderful animal lovers.

Lennox was in a shelter that has to euthanize for space. At the request of a Lab rescue group, Animal Sanctuary Society, Inc. was able to rescue him and find him a good home where he will be going on many outings with his new family. Even on a boat!

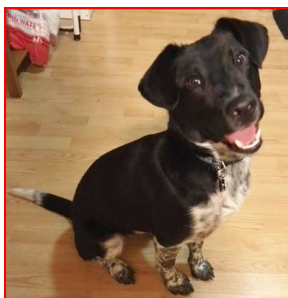

Tank enjoys spending time with the kids!

A pet can be a child's best friend in ways you might not expect! Research shows that pets can benefit a child's physical and emotional well-being.

Tank is cozy and warm under the blankets with his best buddy!

Kiwi has a new name, Piper. He will be enjoying many happy times with his new family and the children will benefit from having him in their family. He will help build their confidence, and help them develop empathy and responsibility.

Piper has a huge smile for his new family.

Piper can't wait to get outside and play ball with the kids!

Sadie

Beauty

Dear Friends at the Animal Sanctuary,

It is with a very heavy heart that I tell you that we lost our dear Sadie to cancer yesterday. It had come on so quickly, that we didn't have time to wrap our heads around it. That being said, she did not suffer. She passed in the midst of loving family who will forever be grateful for the little dog who came into our lives. Sadie was a most special dog. We never needed to get a fence for our yard as she would just hang out there with us. She was so smart, loyal, and obedient even without trying! She would follow me around the yard like my little shadow and "help" me with the gardening. Everyone, everyone loved Sadie! She would welcome everyone with a smile and wagging tail and would never jump on anyone. She was our perfect dog, and we miss her so much it hurts. Thank you for bringing this sweet girl to us. I can only pray that we were good enough for her.

Beauty was adopted by a family with children who wanted him and his brother to be called Beauty and the Beast. Unfortunately the family had to give up the cats when Dad was deployed to Japan. They didn't want the cats they loved so much to have to be quarantined for 6 months so they gave them up for adoption. Beauty was adopted by another family with young children and Beast, whose new name is Beasley, was left behind. Beasley was adopted by an Animal Sanctuary Society Inc. volunteer along with his friends Oreo and Stach. Again due to family difficulties, Beauty was given up for adoption. The same volunteer who adopted his brother decided to adopt Beauty also. Beauty was a gentle soul who was very affectionate. Despite problems with bladder stones and cancer, he never complained. He passed peacefully in our volunteer's arms while being stroked and spoken to at the animal hospital.

Include your pet in your disaster preparations

Prepare for disasters by microchipping your pet and creating an emergency supply kit with food, water, medications, a carrier and leashes. Include a photo of your pet, its medical records, and your and your vet's contact information. If disaster strikes, bring your pet inside and keep it in a secure location. If you need to evacuate, take your pet with you.

Philly

A Pet for All Seasons

Maggie May

Mickey and Vinnie know that April means it's Springtime, but they're wondering what's with all the snow!

Many of the rabbits purchased as Easter pets will never live to see their first birthday. Some will die from neglect, while others will be abandoned in local parks or left at animal shelters. Unless parents are willing to take full responsibility for the possible 10-year lifespan of a live rabbit, they should buy their children chocolate rabbits instead.

Most children want a companion they can hold, carry and cuddle, but rabbits are fragile, ground-loving creatures who break easily when dropped. Additionally, rabbits are easily frightened by loud noises. It is unreasonable to expect a small child to make a 10-year commitment to taking care of a rabbit. All too often, the child loses interest, and the rabbit ends up neglected or abandoned.

Summertime is Beach Time

If you bring your beloved dog to the beach remember to dip their paws in warm water to get the sand off and then wipe their paws dry. Sand can be very irritating to their paws. Make sure your pet doesn't drink ocean water. It can be deadly!

Chloe looks like a model. Check out her beauty harness.

Chloe's owner sent us an email to let us know how much she loves Chloe! She says Chloe is amazing and goofy and my best friend.

Chloe loves her little brother but he doesn't feel the same! However, they do get along just fine! She is friendly towards every human and animal!

Thanks again for everything ! We are soooo happy together!

Playful Chloe!

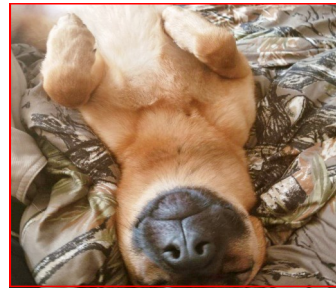

HAPPY AND COMFY IN THEIR NEW HOMES!

Sally, whose new name is Echo, left for a new life that brought a huge smile to her face. She will be hiking, camping and vacationing in Oregon and on the beach too!!

Echo is ready for a hike in her hiking gear!

Time to relax!

Clubs is bonding with his wonderful new family!

Clubs used to be very shy but his foster mom did a fantastic job socializing him. Our thanks go out to you foster mom. And now look at him in his new home. Still somewhat shy, but each day he bonds more and more with his wonderful family.

Nap time with Clubs!
Notice how Clubs is making sure his paw is touching her elbow.

Clubs' bond with these girls grows stronger every day!

Not only does Buddy have a huge smile but his family members do too.

Buddy and his family will heal each other and share love and happy times!

Cupid has a new name and it is Boy-boy.

He is so happy and comfy in his new home!

Happy bright eyes and a nice smile!

Donate Your Car

Avoid the hassle of trying to sell your used vehicle. We will have it towed if needed. Don't place an ad, don't haggle with a dealer. You'll receive a tax deduction for your donation. We accept cars, boats, trucks, vans, RVs, trailers and more!

WE HELPED BUDDY AND OTHERS IN NEED, BECAUSE OF YOUR SUPPORT!
WE LOOK FORWARD TO YOUR CARING and DONATIONS, MAKING YOU AN IMPORTANT PART IN THEIR RESCUE!

BUDDY BEFORE:

This is poor Buddy when he was surrendered to a shelter that has to kill because of lack of space. Looking at his sad eyes, we can tell he felt rejected, unloved, and so defeated in this world. We did not turn our eyes away from his picture, but said we would rescue him no matter what!

This is Buddy after the care he received from Animal Sanctuary Society, Inc. with his Beautiful coat and Smile. He is with one of our dedicated volunteers, Pam!

Buddy's sensitive loving adopter knew he was the one for her before meeting him from just seeing his picture! He has a nice extended family too. Now he will get all the love and care he deserves!

LOSS OF EYE WHEN KITTEN, NOW NEEDS A HOME AS AN ADULT!

We rescued White Shine (the name we gave him), ten years ago as a kitten. We had to have his eye removed due to a severe eye infection. He was adopted, and ten years later we got a call from the adopter that she could no longer keep him. Teddy (his name now) is a gentle soul and loves to just lay in your lap to be cuddled and pet (typical Maine coon personality). He looks like a large Maine coon mix with long flowing hair.

PLEASE CONTACT US TO ADOPT HIM!
