Foxy and Queen extremely bonded sisters adopted together!

When fed with two bowls of food, one bowl for each, they both ate out of the same bowl. When they finished one bowl, they both ate from the other bowl. They slept on the same bed and blanket. They followed each other constantly. When a pair is that bonded we will not separate them. They were adopted out to a professional IT gentleman who has a fenced yard. He wanted a bonded pair so they could keep each other company while he was at work. His son who is in his 20's also lives with him. This nice adopter had excellent references.

Sampson the St. Bernard

Sampson was adopted to a dedicated St. Bernard pet parent. Because Sampson was so sad in a kennel setting, he went to a temporary foster home. He would hold on to his security blanket (seen in the picture). Happy times are here again for Sampson. He loves his new pet dad. He even rolled over for a belly rub.

Animal Sanctuary Society, Inc. is proud to be a safe haven to animals. We provide vet care, medicine, surgeries, food, shelter, and other necessities to animals until the day they are adopted. We will not euthanize an animal because no one is adopting him or her by a certain time. This is possible because of the generous donations and contributions of people like you. Our sincere appreciation goes out to all our donors, volunteers, foster parents and adopters for making all of this possible!

WE ARE THRILLED!

EXCELLENT PET FAMILIES ADOPT TWO FROM US

A Happy Time for Everyone

One month ago this loving family adopted Duke (on left). Well, they recently adopted Brooks (on right). This is a happy time for everyone involved when pet parents come back to adopt another from us. Duke originally was tied outside and only came in when cold. Brooks was a local dog given up because previous pet parents were expecting a baby and didn't have time for him. Look at the two boys with their nice smiles.

Duke has plenty of kisses for pet mom!

I met my older pet sister today! She was very sad when her other pet sister, a boxer type, passed away. But I think we will get along fabulously! I am so looking forward to walks with my pet mom, who is a professional dog walker and pet sitter.

Mickey and Vinny are siblings

They were adopted from us about one and a half years ago. Here they are resting with pet mom's granddaughter. Pet mom says they love her soooo much!

Wonderful pet parents come back to adopt another dog to keep their first dog company!

Emma (dog on right), who is now called Whiskey, was adopted from us a few months ago. The family came back to adopt another dog from us to keep Whiskey company since she loves to be with other dogs. Not only did they come back for another dog named Lenny (dog on left), but Dad and daughter also agreed to volunteer with us.

PETS AND THEIR COMPANIONS!

Cody

Cody has his new blue NY Giants harness on with a hood that we gave him. Pet parents are from Central Jersey and are Giants Fans.

Soccer is now Cody and he has a new little sister!

Cody's pet mom said she would never give him up even for a million dollars, and she said she means it!! She holds him often and he loves it. So pet dad holds one and pet mom holds the other.

Lucy

Lucy has found a wonderful forever family. Lucy and their other dog, Otis, are becoming the best of friends! She is soooo comfortable in her new home.

Gizmo is now called Bubba by his new family, and enjoys taking naps with the family cat. Pet Dad said he is so happy that we recommended Gizmo. He is very sweet!

Gizmo

Sissy now has a 13 year old extremely sweet and even tempered pet lab mix sister. She will be enjoying long walks with her new family members.

Fun times with friends!

Mom and I are great athletes! We enjoy the outdoors together!

Dolly and this wonderful couple bonded immediately. She put smiles back on their faces after their 12 year old lab was euthanized due to a serious illness.

Dolly

Trixie's new name is Dolly after Dolly Parton

Dolly is in love with pet dad & her new home!

Happy Holidays!

Ally is ready to watch football on Thanksgiving Day!

We love when pet-parents share Holiday pictures with us. So we want to share them with you too!

Ally

Ally's pet parents wanted her to be warm on this frigid Thanksgiving Day so they provided her with a sweater.

Tanner loves cuddling on the couch with pet dad.

Tanner enjoyed the holidays with his new forever family!

Tanner

Proud parents painted pictures of their precious pets at the Thirsty Palette fundraiser for Animal Sanctuary Society, Inc. They would certainly make great holiday gifts!

Happy New Year!

We adopted Zena the Monday before Thanksgiving and she truly has been a holiday blessing. We have beyond bonded and she has been our best friend since first sight. Zena has made herself at home and loves her parents! She frequently snuggles and cuddles up with us. Zena also loves to play in the backyard with her tennis ball and finds big sticks for fetch! We also go on frequent walks and runs! She is the best baby girl we could ever ask for. Zena is roughly a 1 1/2yrs old and we are so thankful we get to have many more years to come, we can't imagine life without her now. Thank you for letting us adopt her!

With Love,
Colleen, Dave, and Zena

HELPING EACH OTHER

Tsali

BLIND Tsali has a cowgirl petmom

Petmom is a horse whisper who trains horses and also is a compassionate full time caregiver for her grandmother. Therefore, petmom is home a great deal of time giving Tsali much company. She loves to hike and has an active outdoor life and will be bringing Tsali with her on outdoor adventures. Petmom's coonhound died of old age and Tsali looked so much like her that she feels she is now able to open her heart and loving home to Tsali. She called us about meeting Tsali, and we told her he is almost completely blind; she said, "that's it! I definitely want him." The veterinarian thinks his blindness is probably due to a prior head injury. This is a match made in Heaven.

Tucker (Duncan) has a purpose

Hi there! Just wanted to give you an update since it's been a few months! We are still volunteering. Here he is at the local public library, our friend who is officially cancer free as of today is reading to him.

He has come a long way from a animal shelter that has to euthanize for space. Animal Sanctuary Society rescued him in time. He seems to know he was born and lived to do this. Check out his smile and how his two paws touch the child.

Tucker

Lincoln enjoys long walks with his new petdad. He is making himself comfortable in his new home.

Lincoln

Cha Cha has a nice smile sitting with his family

Cha cha was meant to be a jogging partner. He has such a nice stride next to his jogging pet dad. He doesn't cross in front, but stays nicely by pet dad's side. You can tell he really enjoys it!

Polly

Polly's big life changing announcement to the world! The sign says, "I'm home!" 2/12/19

Polly has been sleeping with petmom since her first night in her new home. She has been enjoying walks with petmom near home and near the ocean. Check out that smile as she sleeps.
