This Holiday Season we wish to take the opportunity to sincerely Thank You for being a part of the solution by supporting us with donations, by adopting, and/or being involved in rescue.

Because of your wonderful support, please read the stories of two of the thousands of desperate animals helped in outreach programs since we started.

Most of these animals didn't have another safety net, we were the last resort for them.

White Shine

White Shine is an eight week old male kitten with a guardian angel watching. He and his brother were found abandoned with infections in their eyes. After a long struggle, the younger brother had to be put down. At the vet's office he seemed to know it was the last time he would see his brother; and he seemed to be saying his goodbyes to him. After his brother was humanely euthanized by the vet, we weren't sure if White Shine would live. He had been back and forth to the vet, and he recently had his eye surgically removed. He doesn't seem to notice his eye is gone, because he is still the same sweet, playful kitten. White Shine was recently adopted to a very loving home where he is happy. However, we are desperate for donations for him and others like him. Please call to help us today!!

Junior

Junior is a three year young male dachshund mix. He was raised since he was a puppy with a loving family. Sadly, the family was evicted from their home. His pet parent drove around in search of shelter for him, more worried about Junior than herself. She was able to find shelter with family, but Junior was not allowed to stay. Junior is a very sweet boy who is desperate for the love and attention of a family. He's very affectionate and loving.

Happy Tails

Junior was recently adopted to a wonderful family where he is very happy. He has a new best friend and he is spoiled rotten.

Please help us to continue and expand our aid to the orphaned animals with medicine, needed vet care and/or surgeries, food, preventative care, spay/neuters and other day to day needs.

Please don't delay in sending your Holiday Donation today! The sweet, four legged angels are counting on it.

We and the animals want to take the time to wish you and yours (pets included!) a joyous, peaceful, healthy, and happy Holiday Season.

Adopted!

Courtney was desperate running around a court house for a good Samaritan to help her - thus her name - someone who knew our group saved her and took her in the court house. She had to get out of the building soon - so we immediately sent one of us to pick her up. No one ever looked for her. She is now in a happy home with a responsible loving person.

Mara was saved near a crack house eating out of the garbage. She was pregnant, and someone in the crack house said they would kill her, because she was pregnant. One of our people saved her. We helped her have her kittens. Her kittens were born with deformed legs and we took them to a vet who specializes in legs. Luckily he said they were saved in time. This was caused by poor nutrition from the mom, and with good nutrition for mom now who was nursing them and supplemental nutrition for the kittens they may be able to walk. Good news they are able to walk and all were adopted into forever loving homes.
